

Frequently Asked Questions

Is Prometric still delivering Microsoft Dynamics exams?

Yes.

What has changed?

Microsoft Dynamics exams are no longer separated from other Microsoft Certified Professional exams on the Prometric exam selection screen.

How do I find the Microsoft Dynamics exam I want?

On the exam selection screen you can sort the exams by exam number or exam name. Microsoft Dynamics exams are still listed under their MB exam numbers.

Are there any changes to vouchers?

Unless a voucher is specific to an exam, vouchers will be good for Microsoft Dynamics and Microsoft Certified Professional exams.

Why the change?

The Microsoft Dynamics certification programs are being integrated into Microsoft Learning.

What additional changes can we expect now that Microsoft Dynamics exams have been integrated into Microsoft Learning?

The integration of the Microsoft Dynamics certification program into Microsoft Learning has been occurring over time. Dynamics candidates currently receive benefits such as access to a secure site and access to Logo Builder and will continue to do so. This change is just another step in completing the integration.

Where can I find more information about Microsoft Dynamics certification?
