Submission of Renewal Applications

- Course completion hours reported to the Maryland Insurance Administration are generally evident on the online licensing system, NIPR (www.nipr.com), 48 hours after submission by the course provider.
- If you are attempting to renew a resident producer license, please note that course providers have 15 days to report your successful completion of a course. If you have taken a course that has not yet been "banked", and your license is 15 days or less from expiration please mail your application, certificate(s) of course completion, and renewal fee directly to the Maryland Insurance Administration prior to your license expiration date to avoid paying the additional $100 reinstatement fee. The mailing address is:

Maryland Insurance Administration
Attn: Producer Licensing
200 St. Paul Place, Suite 2700
Baltimore, MD 21202

Licensed Insurance Producer Responsibilities

- Producers may not earn hours of continuing education for attending the same course multiple times within the same renewal period. In addition courses completed in a subsequent renewal period may not be taken within 6 months of each other.
- Producers shall maintain a record of course completion for 4 years following the date the course was completed.
- Pursuant to §10-126 of the Insurance Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, the Commissioner may suspend or revoke a license if an insurance producer is found to have knowingly submitted a falsified certificate of course completion.
